Shanghai

A new world, one city at a time

About Shanghai

Opened to trade on 17 Nov 1843: a coastal county town grew into a Far East metropolis

About 24.8 million residents live in its 16 districts

Planned as a global city: five centres in economy, finance, trade, shipping, innovation

The Bund for night views and landmarks / across the river, Lujiazui skyscrapers

Plane-tree lanes, cafes and galleries in the former French Concession

02 · Preparation

Tick these tasks before departure

30

days per visit, visa-free

10

days under the 240-hour transit scheme

24

hours to register with police if not in a hotel

1. Passport & eligibility

No fixed 6-month rule: valid on the day you enter and leave

Ordinary passports only. Agreement applies since 2024-02-09

Transit: own passport plus onward ticket with fixed dates to a third country

Tourism, business, visits, family: fine. Work, study, press: visa needed

Transit is a separate scheme: 240 hours = 10 days; check onward routing.
Hotel registers you; otherwise register accommodation within 24 hours.

2. From gate to hotel

Save flight, terminal and hotel details offline. Check last trains for late flights.
Choose Huangpu for the Bund, Pudong for towers, Jing'an for shopping, Xuhui for lanes.

Install a travel eSIM before arrival; ask staff for the airport SIM counter.

Ask airport information for directions to exchange desks and ATMs.

Use the official taxi queue; check rank signs on site.

For DiDi, confirm the app pickup pin and plate before boarding.

PVG Metro Line 2 is between T1 and T2; check the screen for a Guanglan Road change.

Ask the help desk for airport rail wayfinding from your arrivals exit.

3. Payments & connectivity

Install Alipay and WeChat Pay before departure; test verification.

Travel eSIM or roaming: no VPN needed

local SIM: install a VPN before you land

4. Weather & luggage

Spring and autumn: most comfortable, best for walking

Plum rain: days of drizzle. Pack a rain and sun umbrella

Hot and humid. Drink water, use sun protection

Damp and cold: bring a thick coat

Pack passport copies, charger, comfortable shoes and personal medicines.

5. Apps & accommodation

Install Alipay, WeChat, Metro, DiDi and an offline translator; save your hotel pin.
Confirm passport check-in and accommodation registration with the hotel.

03 · Entry at the border

Follow the airport sequence, one step at a time

1. Jet bridge to arrivals	Follow International Arrivals; use the airport directional signs. Keep passport and your saved hotel address ready; ask staff if you lose the route.
2. Arrival card	Free online arrival card since 20 Nov 2025. https://s.nia.gov.cn/ArrivalCardFillingPC/
3. Choose a lane	Ask border staff which lane fits your passport. Do not assume that a foreign passport qualifies for e-gates.
4. Fingerprint capture	Follow border staff for fingerprint capture and any exemptions. Keep passport and hotel booking available for immigration questions.
5. Baggage claim	Check the baggage carousel display; ask staff for help. Report a missing or damaged bag before leaving baggage claim.
6. Customs	Declare goods requiring written declaration via the red channel. Use the green channel if you have no goods requiring declaration.
7. Public arrivals hall	Use airport service points for SIMs, payment and transport help. Confirm your hotel pin before choosing onward transport.

NIA warns about fake paid sites: use its official free channel.

Immigration hotline 12367: 24/7, multilingual including English

Refuse drivers who approach you at airports or stations.

Police warning: January 2026 crackdown; use legal vehicles and official platforms.

A 2023 Pudong tout case involved a ¥750 fare; the passenger was reimbursed.

Pudong T1: arrivals Gate 12. T2: check the signs on site (Gate 25/26 conflict).

Hongqiao: T1 arrivals Gate 1; T2 arrivals Gate 4. Join the official taxi queue.

07 · Food · Shanghai classics

Shanghai classics and seasonal ordering

Xiaolongbao

Steamed soup dumplings with thin skins and juicy fillings; let the soup cool.

Shengjianbao

Pan-fried pork buns: crisp bottoms, juicy filling and a savoury-sweet bite.

Hongshaorou

Pork belly braised in soy sauce and rock sugar; sweet-savoury and meltingly soft.

Scallion-oil noodles

Ask the restaurant about ingredients and preparation.

Xiekehuang

Crab-shell-shaped flaky pastries, crisp and sweet or savoury; ask about the filling.

Shanghai xunyu

Fish fried then soaked in sauce; crisp outside, tender inside and sweet-savoury.

Hairy crab season

Hairy crab (hairy crab), Yangcheng Lake: 2026 catch opened 28 Sep; best mid-Oct to mid-Dec

Crab season: ask if the price is per piece or per jin before you order

Hainanese chicken rice: oil rice may be charged extra (about ¥6 a bowl)

Homesick? Shanghai had 83 Singapore restaurants in 2024

Let soup dumplings cool; ask about filling and portion prices before ordering.
